Contents

0.1   Functions between topologies

We can define a function from topology to another.

$f(X) = Y$

0.1.1   Continuous functions between topologies

If $f(X)$ is continous, then we have a continous function between topologies.

0.1.2   Inverse functions between topologies

If $f(X)$ is invertible then there is a inverse mapping.